MARK YOUR CALENDAR!

Did you know the Eastern San Joaquin Groundwater Authority is creating a sustainable groundwater management plan? Our first open house will be held on August 29 from 6:30–8 p.m. at the Robert J. Cabral Agricultural Center! You will have the opportunity to ask questions and provide your own input about the Groundwater Sustainability Plan. For more information visit: www.esjgroundwater.org.

For the first time in California's history, the Sustainable Groundwater Management Act is providing a framework for sustainable groundwater management.
